

Calvary Caller

February 10, 2017

In the 28th chapter of Matthew, Jesus makes a promise to us, He says, “I am with you always.” Jesus made this promise to His disciples after his resurrection. Jesus continues to make this promise for all those who listen, for all those who have, “ears to hear.” People respond to Jesus’ promise in various ways. Some people only hear it on Sunday morning. Some people kind of resent this ‘interference’ of their freedom and privacy. For others it is a promise that carries them through each day with all the ups and downs we face and becomes a blessing beyond expectations!

Let it be known, our Baptismal Promise tells us that God’s faithful presence is as close as the air we breath. Jesus is never far, and with just a quick thought, we can imagine (and feel) God’s love with us. It takes a little discipline and effort, but look out for Jesus in each and every minute of the dayœ. Soon, the way we see, hear, and experience the world takes on a whole new beautiful meaning.

(“And teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you. And surely I am with you always, to the end of the age.” – Matthew 28:20)

See you in Church,

Pastor Tim