Reconciling in Christ Sunday

January 28, 2018

10:00 am

God calls us to be a welcoming people! Welcome to people new to faith, to Christians of every flavor, and to long time Lutherans. Welcome to all with no church home, who need strength, want to follow, have doubts, or do not believe. Welcome to new guests and old friends. Welcome to people of every age and size, color and culture, ability and gift, to gay and straight, to old and young, to believers and questioners, and questioning believers. This is a place where we live past the labels, where we are welcome to celebrate and grieve, rejoice and recover. This is a place where our lives are made new. Welcome to worship God on this day!

WE GATHER TO WORSHIP

Begun in 1983, the Reconciling in Christ (RIC) Program is for Lutheran communities of faith to answer the inclusive call of the Gospel by welcoming people of all sexual orientations and gender identities. The Reconciling in Christ Roster now exceeds 600 settings. Each year, the last Sunday in January is designated as RIC Sunday, a day that welcoming congregations celebrate what it means to live a theology of reconciliation, and radical hospitality.

SOUNDING OF THE PŪ

Please gather as the sounding of the conch shell calls us to worship.

GATHERING, Ina

“Morning Has Broken”

RINGING OF THE BELL

During the Ringing of the Bell please center your thoughts on Makua—God the Creator, Keiki Kane—Jesus Christ our Redeemer, and ‘Uhane Hemolele—the Holy Spirit our Comforter.

GREETING, Kahu Tim

KAHU: Come! God welcomes you here, now, today!

ALL: We come with all our joys and sorrows, all our hopes, dreams, and burdens. We come just as we are.

KAHU: The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ,
the love of God,
and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with you all.

ALL: And also with you.

CONFESSION OF SIN, Kahu Tim

KAHU: Blessed be the Holy Trinity, + one God who stretches out the heavens, who sends light to the nations,
who gives breath to us all.

ALL: Amen.

KAHU: Let us confess our sin in the presence of God and of one another.

Silence is kept for reflection.

Loving God,

ALL: we need a fresh start.

We have believed what the world tells us:
that there is something wrong with us,
that we are broken beyond repair,
that you cannot love us,
that we cannot possibly be made in your image,
that we have gotten what we deserved.

Forgive us for not believing you when you told us
we are your child,
that you made us as we are,
that you love us and want us to be at peace.

Give us a fresh start, so that we can live again as your children. Amen.

ASSURANCE OF PARDON

KAHU: Even when we have done wrong, God re-creates us.
Even when we have messed up, God puts us together.
God's love never runs out. God made us as we are.
God never tires of calling us beloved children.

Hear God say to you now:

*I love you.
Your sins are forgiven,
for the sake of + Jesus Christ our Savior.*

ALL: Amen.

PRAYER OF THE DAY standing

ALL: Compassionate God, you gather the whole universe into your radiant presence and continually reveal your Son as our Savior. Bring wholeness to all that is broken and speak truth to us in our confusion, that all creation will see and know your Son, Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord. Amen.

KEIKI SERMON, Kahu Tim

Following the Keiki Sermon the children, ages 3-12, are dismissed to attend Sunday School.

GREETING OF GUESTS and SHARING OF ALOHA standing

KAHU: May God's aloha be with you.

ALL: And also with you.

David Haas (1957) wrote this text and tune in 2005. The refrain, "...all are welcome here!" proclaims a lavish and intentional sense of hospitality and unity. David, born in Michigan, graduated from the University of St. Thomas in St. Paul with a degree in theology, music and liturgy. He is a frequent speaker at the Liturgy and Arts Conference held at Chaminade, and a long-time family friend of Susan Bruhl, a dear friend of many Calvary members.

FIRST READING, read responsively

Genesis 1: 1–2: 4a

ONE: ¹In the beginning when God created the heavens and the earth, ²the earth was a formless void and darkness covered the face of the deep, while a wind from God swept over the face of the waters. ³Then God said, "Let there be light"; and there was light.

ALL: ⁴And God saw that the light was good;

ONE: and God separated the light from the darkness. ⁵God called the light Day, and the darkness he called Night. And there was evening and there was morning, the first day. ⁶And God said, "Let there be a dome in the midst of the waters, and let it separate the waters from the waters." ⁷So God made the dome and separated the waters that were under the dome from the waters that were above the dome. And it was so. ⁸God called the dome Sky. And there was evening and there was morning, the second day. ⁹And God said, "Let the waters under the sky be gathered together into one place, and let the dry land appear." And it was so. ¹⁰God called the dry land Earth, and the waters that were gathered together he called Seas.

ALL: And God saw that it was good.

ONE: ¹¹Then God said, "Let the earth put forth vegetation: plants yielding seed, and fruit trees of every kind on earth that bear fruit with the seed in it." And it was so. ¹²The earth brought forth vegetation: plants yielding seed of every kind, and trees of every kind bearing fruit with the seed in it.

ALL: And God saw that it was good.

KAHU: ¹³And there was evening and there was morning, the third day.

¹⁴And God said, "Let there be lights in the dome of the sky to separate the day from the night; and let them be for signs and for seasons and for days and years, ¹⁵and let them be lights in the dome of the sky to give light upon the earth." And it was so. ¹⁶God made the two great lights—the greater light to rule the day and the lesser light to rule the night—and the stars. ¹⁷God set them in the dome of the sky to give light upon the earth, ¹⁸to rule over the day and over the night, and to separate the light from the darkness.

ALL: And God saw that it was good.

ONE: ¹⁹And there was evening and there was morning, the fourth day.

²⁰And God said, "Let the waters bring forth swarms of living creatures, and let birds fly above the earth across the dome of the sky." ²¹So God created the great sea monsters and every living creature that moves, of every kind, with which the waters swarm, and every winged bird of every kind.

ALL: And God saw that it was good.

ONE: ²²God blessed them, saying, "Be fruitful and multiply and fill the waters in the seas, and let birds multiply on the earth." ²³And there was evening and there was morning, the fifth day. ²⁴And God said, "Let the earth bring forth living creatures of every kind: cattle and creeping things and wild animals of the earth of every kind." And it was so. ²⁵God made the wild animals of the earth of every kind, and the cattle of every kind, and everything that creeps upon the ground of every kind.

ALL: And God saw that it was good.

ONE: ²⁶Then God said, "Let us make humankind in our image, according to our likeness; and let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the birds of the air, and over the cattle, and over all the wild animals of the earth, and over every creeping thing that creeps upon the earth." ²⁷So God created humankind in his image, in the image of God he created them; male and female he created them. ²⁸God blessed them, and God said to them, "Be fruitful and multiply, and fill the earth and subdue it; and have dominion over the fish of the sea and over the birds of the air and over every living thing that moves upon the earth." ²⁹God said, "See, I have given you every plant yielding seed that is upon the face of all the earth, and every tree with seed in its fruit; you shall have them for food. ³⁰And to every beast of the earth, and to every bird of the air, and to everything that creeps on the earth, everything that has the breath of life, I have given every green plant for food." And it was so.

ALL: ³¹God saw everything that he had made, and indeed, it was very good.

ONE: And there was evening and there was morning, the sixth day. ^{2:1}Thus the heavens and the earth were finished, and all their multitude. ²And on the seventh day God finished the work that he had done, and he rested on the seventh day from all the work that he had done. ³So God blessed the seventh day and hallowed it, because on it God rested from all the work that he had done in creation. ⁴These are the generations of the heavens and the earth when they were created.

Psalm 139: 1, 13–16

LORD, you have [|] searched me out;

O LORD, [|] you have known me.

You created my [|] inmost being

and stitched me together in my [|] mother's womb.

For all these mysteries [|] I thank you—

for the wonder of myself,

for the wonder of your works—

my soul [|] knows it well.

My frame was not hidden from you

while I was being made in that [|] secret place,

knitted together in the depths of the earth;

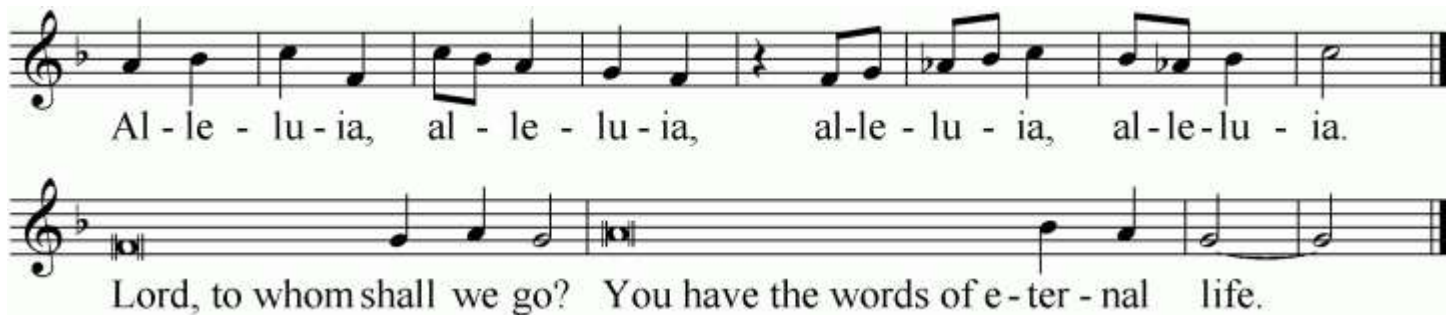

your eyes saw my body [|] even there.

All of my days were written [|] in your book,

GOSPEL standing, read responsively

John 8: 1–11

KAHU: Early in the morning he [Jesus] came again to the temple. All the people came to him and he sat down and began to teach them. The scribes and the Pharisees brought a woman who had been caught in adultery; and making her stand before all of them, they said to him,

ALL: “Teacher, this woman was caught in the very act of committing adultery. Now in the law Moses commanded us to stone such women. Now what do you say?”

KAHU: They said this to test him, so that they might have some charge to bring against him. Jesus bent down and wrote with his finger on the ground. When they kept on questioning him, he straightened up and said to them, “Let anyone among you who is without sin be the first to throw a stone at her.” And once again he bent down and wrote on the ground. When they heard it, they went away, one by one, beginning with the elders; and Jesus was left alone with the woman standing before him. Jesus straightened up and said to her, “Woman, where are they? Has no one condemned you?” She said,

ALL: “No one, sir.”

KAHU: And Jesus said, “Neither do I condemn you. Go your way, and from now on do not sin again.”

KAHU: The Gospel of the Lord.

ALL: Praise to you, O Christ.

SERMON HYMN standing “The Scriptures Say that Jesus Came”
(Sung to CANONBURY: “Lord, Speak to Us, That We May Speak”)

The scriptures say that Jesus came to rend the walls of hate and shame.
Yet walls are what we crave to build;
it is our most destructive skill.

O Church, put down your trowels and stones and listen while creation groans,
as one more wall goes into place,
a testament to our disgrace.

O Spirit, come, and help us see that no one can be truly free until, by God’s unfailing grace,
we meet each other face to face.

John Thornburg composed this text in 2007. Thornburg, a native of Southhampton, New York, studied at DePaul University and the Perkins School of Theology at SMU. He is currently the Senior Area Representative for the North Texas (United Methodist) Conference.

AFFIRMATION OF FAITH standing “The Apostles’ Creed”

ALL: I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth. I believe in Jesus Christ, God’s only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried; he descended to the dead. On the third day he rose again; he ascended into heaven, he is seated at the right hand of the Father, and he will come to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

PRAYERS OF THE CHURCH standing

KAHU: Confident that God our light and our salvation hears us when we pray, let us offer our prayers for the church, the world, and all people in need.

A brief silence.

For the church,

KAHU: For our planet and all creation.

ALL: Shield those places in danger, inspire us to protect the earth—the oceans, reefs, and lands. We pray especially for the victims of hurricanes, earthquakes, tsunamis, fires, flooding and droughts around the world. Hear our prayer, Aloha ke Akua.

KAHU: For communities, cities, and nations,

ALL: may they become places where no one is excluded or discriminated against, where love is our rule and justice is our practice. Help us to end systemic racism and sexism. Protect those who fear deportation and violence. Hear our prayer, Aloha ke Akua.

KAHU: For the people in our lives,

ALL: and those unknown to us who need healing, care, and compassion. We remember especially the hungry, those without homes, the refugee and the stranger.

Hear our prayer, *Aloha ke Akua.

KAHU: For this congregation and its ministries,

ALL: for visitors in our midst, for our sisters and brothers for all unable to accept and forgive themselves. Hear our prayer, *Aloha ke Akua.

W.H.A.L.E., a time of thanks for answered prayer and prayer requests.

KAHU: *Merciful God, you hear our prayers even before we speak them.
Receive them for the sake of the one through whom you have revealed your goodness, Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord.*

ALL: Amen.

Anyone desiring individual prayer and intercessions please contact Kahu Tim or members of the Stephen Ministry team at the conclusion of the worship service.

PREPARATION OF THE GIFTS, Calvary Choir

“Jesus, Is a Rock in a Weary Land”

Jesus is a rock in a weary land...a shelter in the time of storm.

*No one can do like Jesus, not a mumbling word he said;
He went walking down to Lazarus' grave, and he raised him from the dead.*

*When Jesus was on earth, the flesh was very weak;
he took a towel and girded himself and washed his disciples' feet*

*Yonder comes my Savior, him whom I love so well;
He has the palm of victory and the keys of death and hell.*

Kyle Johnson arranged this African American Spiritual while serving on the faculty (2010-2016) of California

Lutheran University. He gave the Calvary Choir the music and the specific permission to sing his setting.

Lift up your hearts. We lift them to the Lord.

In a similar manner, after supper, Jesus took the cup, gave thanks and gave it for all to drink, saying: “This cup is the new covenant in my blood, shed for you and for all people for the forgiveness of sin. Do this for the remembrance of me.”

At Calvary by the Sea all those who have a relationship with Jesus Christ and those who are seeking such a relationship are invited to experience the real presence of Christ in the sacrament of Holy Communion. You are invited to follow the direction of the Kahu and come forward to encircle the altar area. There are kneelers for those who prefer to kneel. Dip the bread in either the red wine or the white grape juice and then eat the element.

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION standing

KAHU: O Morning Star, fair and bright, you have refreshed us again with heavenly food.
You are our dearest treasure. Go with us now—today, tomorrow, every day—that we tell the story of your never-ending love and sing your praise both now and forever.

ALL: Amen.

SENDING HYMN 593 standing

“Drawn to the Light”

The text and tune of this hymn were written by John C. Ylvisaker (b. September 11, 1937), in Fargo, North Dakota. He studied at Concordia College, Moorhead, MN, Luther Seminary in St. Paul, University of Minnesota, and St. Cloud State College. Note how the phrase “drawn to the light” is used in this hymn.

BENEDICTION AND SENDING, Kahu Tim

KAHU: Dear children of God, you have been sealed by the Holy Spirit, and marked with the cross of Christ forever.

You are beloved by God, and claimed as God’s own.

Bear witness to this new life in the name of Christ.
Share it in the name of mercy.
Offer it in the name of justice.

Christ is among us making peace right here, right now.

ALL: Amen.

KAHU: Go in peace. Be the light of Christ.

ALL: Thanks be to God!

GOING FORTH, Ina

“All Night, All Day”

The congregation is invited to take part in the marriage of Drs. Cliff Cunningham and Matt Emanuele in the Sanctuary at 11:30 am this morning following the Morning Worship.

INTERCESSIONS FOR HEALING

Individual and private Intercessions for Healing will be offered today following the morning worship by members of the Stephen Ministry. Please go to the back of the sanctuary following the Benediction for anointing and intercessory prayers for healing. Calvary by the Sea, in its ministry of healing, does not replace the gifts of God that come through the scientific community nor does it promise a cure. Rather Calvary by the Sea offers and celebrates gifts such as these: God's presence with strength and comfort in time of suffering, God's promise of wholeness and peace, and God's love embodied in this community of faith.
